

Power up!

Sophia

Thunderstrike,

“I have to get home before I get struck by lightning “ Tim said to himself while he was running through an open field!

BAM! BOOM! ZAP! Just like that Tim got struck by lightning!

And he became THUNDERSTRIKE, king of weather and electricity!

He started levitating into the thunderstorm, he grabbed all the lightning bolts and shooting them everywhere. Next, he shouted but to all the other people it came out as thunder. He started to come down to earth slowly after about an hour, the storm stopped as well when he came down. Tim ran to his house and up the stairs all the way to his bed and fell sound asleep. As you know, when there is a superhero there is a supervillain. Tim found that out when he went to the city, he was shopping, and he heard people screaming. Suddenly lightning struck him, he became, (again)THUNDERSTRIKE king of weather and electricity! He found out that he could fly so he bolted towards CRYPTO (bad guy) stealer of electricity. But a little spark stopped him in his tracks “MOVE I NEED TO SAVE THE CITY!” Thunder strike shouted at the little spark “WOAH I'm just here to help boss” He replied. “Boss? Whatever I need to save the city you can come if you want.” ...After a long (and I mean really really really long fight) Thunderstrike ended Crypto, or had he...

Crypto

I was hiding in the fog until that silly superhero left. Now I almost have all the electricity. Wow it does make me tired, well I will sleep on it.The next day the rest of that electricity in the city was gone! THUNDERSRIKE! Crypto shouted and out of the blue thunderstrike came flying over. "You called?" He said sarcastically." YOU TOOK THE REST OF THE ELECTRICITY I WAS GOING TO STEAL! Crypto said. "So? Replied Thunderstrike. "You will never find it." “Oh yeah?” I said. He then dug straight down and grabbed the rest of the electricity! Thunderstrike was so scared when I blasted the house next to us. The only thing that was left was a mirror, so I blasted him, and he put up the mirror and it bounced back to me, that was the end of my power. THE END
